IT'S NATIONAL VOCATIONS AWARENESS WEEK

As Catholics, we firmly believe that God has a plan for our lives. He calls some to marriage, some to the priesthood, and others to religious life. Some remain as generous single people. Fully living our own vocations – and teaching young people how to discern God’s call – is a serious duty, but also a joyful one. Today begins National Vocation Awareness Week. During this week, please pray about how God is calling you to live your vocation more deeply. Encourage the young people in your life – children, grandchildren, students, and friends – to be open if God calls them to priesthood or consecrated life.

THE MAIN CATHOLIC VOCATIONS

A vocation is a call from God to pursue holiness in a specific way, involving a public and permanent commitment.

Marriage: Most people are called to marriage – a vowed union of a man and woman who promise to love their spouses and to joyfully welcome children.

Priesthood: Priests bring Jesus to people and people to Jesus through preaching and the sacraments. They are ordained to devote their lives to serve the people of God.

Consecrated Life: Both men and women make vows of poverty, chastity, and obedience when they join orders such as the Franciscans, Benedictines, Dominicans, etc.

Single Life: The Church recognizes that some people, for various reasons, are not called or cannot live in vocations such as marriage or consecrated life. Nonetheless, they can contribute greatly to the good of the human family, serving God and neighbor.

Even when God's will does not correspond to your own desires, it is always beneficial for you.

St. Arnold Janssen

PURGATORY

A family was having Thanksgiving dinner. They took out their finest china, their most prized possession, for the feast. After a long and delicious meal, their fine china was full of gunk. Rather than put the china directly into the china hutch, the most beautiful place imaginable where it would stay forever, they put it into the sink and lovingly washed off the gunk.

This little parable may be a way to understand Purgatory. You see, you are that fine china . . . God's most precious possession. The table represents our life on earth, where we accumulate a lot of gunk. And the beautiful china hutch represents heaven, where we will live forever.

The Catechism of the Catholic Church tells us that Purgatory is not so much a place as a process, the final purification of the elect. The Book of Revelation says that nothing unclean will enter heaven. So think of Purgatory as the sink, where God lovingly washes us clean, so that we can take our place with all those who have gone in faith before us.

CATHOLIC CEMETERY MOMENT

The first Sunday in November has traditionally been designated as Cemetery Sunday. This special day reminds all of us of the importance of continued prayer for our beloved dead and to also remember those faithful departed who may have no one to pray for them. They can best be remembered by visiting a Catholic cemetery, one of our most sacred places.

On this first Sunday of November, consider joining our 9th and 10th graders as they pray the Rosary at 1:00 at Holy Sepulchre Cemetery in Jamestown.

MASS INTENTIONS

May the prayers of Mary, the Mother of God, who stood by the cross as Her Son was dying, help those who mourn for our brothers and sisters and accompany all of us in our time of need. Amen.
