CATHOLIC CHARITIES

Growing up in a neighborhood riddled with gang activity, Jah-Keem was just 9 when he fell in with the wrong crowd. By age 10, he was working as a mule carrying drugs. Despite his mother's best efforts, he continued down that troublesome path until his mother moved them to a new neighborhood. While he stayed out of trouble, Jah-Keem did find himself falling behind in school academically, and it wasn't long before he dropped out. With no diploma and no job, Jah-Keem's cousin suggested Catholic Charities. Upon his arrival, he linked up James from the agency's Workforce and Education Services to obtain his high school equivalency degree. "Coming to Catholic Charities was the best move I ever made," he said. "James told me he saw potential in me and nobody but my momma ever told me that before." Today, Jah-Keem has his diploma in hand and is working a full-time job. Will you help others like Jah-Keem find hope? Visit www.ccwny.org/donation or call 218-1400.

EUCCHARISTIC MINISTER TRAINING

There will be a Eucharistic Minister training session at St. James Church Hall at 27 Allen Street, Jamestown, on March 30, from 10:00am to 12:30pm. Do you feel called to serve our Lord by assisting at Mass? Or by visiting nursing homes and those who are homebound with Communion? Are you a member of the parish in good standing? If interested, contact Fr. Piotr. Pre-registration is required. Bring a Bible!

Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon them. May they rest in peace. Amen. May their souls and the souls of all the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace. Amen.

May the prayers of Mary, the Mother of God, who stood by the cross as Her Son was dying, help those who mourn for our brothers and sisters and accompany all of us in our time of need. Amen.
