DIVINE MERCY SUNDAY

This Sunday is Divine Mercy Sunday. You are invited to join us at our church in Panama for special Divine Mercy devotions, including the Divine Mercy Chaplet and blessing of the new Divine Mercy painting that was donated in memory of Mary and George Tichy by their daughters. The devotions will start at 3:00pm and will be followed by a reception in the church hall. All are welcome to attend.

THANK YOU!

We would like to extend a big thank you to Tony Hren for his efforts to fix the kneelers in our Lakewood church. Tony took the time to inspect every kneeler and to repair those that needed it. These kneelers are now older than many of us and are showing their age – please try to raise and lower them gently so that Tony's repairs will last for a while!

Also thank you to our Confirmation students who painted the Children's Room at our Lakewood church. We hope to finish the remodeling project soon and truly appreciate the contribution that these young people have made to its completion.

DO YOU KNOW THE VATICAN TEACHING ON CREMATION?

Pope Francis has directed the Vatican's Congregation for the Doctrine of the Faith to publish the instructions reaffirming teaching that the Catholic Church is not opposed to cremation, while continuing to recommend that cremated remains of the deceased be buried in Catholic cemeteries or other sacred spaces.

The Church does not allow for the cremated remains to be placed in a residence; nor are they to be scattered in the air, on land, or at sea; or preserved in mementoes, such as jewelry or other objects. Church teaching also prohibits cremated remains from being divided among family members.

Cremation was permitted by the Catholic Church in 1963 and incorporated into Canon Law in 1983. It is important for Catholics to understand the Church teaching that surrounds cremation and burial of cremated remains to prevent misunderstandings at the time of death.

BRUNCH WITH THE BISHOP

Bishop Richard Malone will be coming to our church in Lakewood on May 12 to celebrate the 10:00 Mass with us and to bless both our mothers and the new narthex. We will also be celebrating the 15th anniversary of Fr. Piotr's ordination to the priesthood. In thanksgiving for all of these blessings, we will be having a brunch after the 10:00 Mass. There are sign-up sheets in the church entrances to sign up to attend the brunch and/or to help with it. We hope to see many of you there!

CATHOLIC HOME MISSIONS

Support the Catholic Home Missions Appeal today! Right now, over 40% of dioceses in the United States are considered mission territory because they are unable to fund essential pastoral work in their communities. Your donations support programs, such as religious education, seminary formation, and lay ministry training, to build vibrant faith communities right here in the United States. Please be generous. Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon them. May they rest in peace. Amen. May their souls and the souls of all the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace. Amen.

May the prayers of Mary, the Mother of God, who stood by the cross as Her Son was dying, help those who mourn for our brothers and sisters and accompany all of us in our time of need. Amen.
