"How to Evangelize"

In today's Gospel Jesus sends out disciples to evangelize. In exactly the same way Christ wants us to evangelize the world today. The world will listen if we are credible witnesses who radiate the glory and grace of God. To reach hearts with Christ's Gospel we must know the Lord personally and deeply and testify to what we have experienced deep within. We must evangelize with humility, self-knowledge, and Christ's genuine care and concern for our neighbor, with no hidden agenda, self-seeking, or desire for personal gain. We must not start with a desire to prove a point based on our convictions, but with needs, convictions, questions, and doubts of those we wish to reach. And regardless of how anxious we may feel, we must be patient, remembering in love that reaching out and sharing Jesus Christ's good news of salvation takes time. We are instruments of God's peace, but God is in charge. Let God be Good.

All proceeds benefit the Youth Scholarship Fund for high school seniors who are active in the parish. So, mark your calendars for July 31st at Sacred Heart, immediately after Mass until all meals are gone! The best part is you don't need to worry about making dinner on a hot summer day!
