CATHOLIC CHARITIES CAN HELP

Spring is a time of hope and renewal. If you or someone you know is struggling with addiction, we can help. Catholic Charities' Chemical Dependency Treatment Program in Buffalo has immediate openings. The outpatient program is New York State OASAS licensed and aims to treat addiction with a combination of therapy and medicine. Go to www.ccwny.org/services/outpatient-clinic for more information. To begin the referral process, call Central Intake at 895-1033. In addition, counseling for individuals and families is always available at our neighborhood offices across western New York.

Help your neighbor find hope. Appeal 2019 continues until June 30. Donate at www.ccwny.org/donation.

THE DEACON

As we celebrate Deacon Dan's fifth anniversary of his ordination to the diaconate, it's a good time to find out a little more about deacons.

You may have noticed that Deacon Dan is dressed similarly but differently from Fr. Piotr when he is assisting at Mass. While a priest wears his stole around his neck, the deacon's stole is worn across the left shoulder and fastens on his right side. The deacon may also wear an outer garment that resembles the priest's chasuble. The deacon's outer garment is called a dalmatic and it has sleeves.

The ministry of the deacon is one of service. He is there to assist bishops or priests in their ministry. At Mass, if a deacon is assisting, he will be the one to proclaim the Gospel. The deacon may also give the homily, prepare the altar for the Eucharist, help with the distribution of Holy Communion, and cleaning of the vessels used at Mass. The deacon also calls the assembly to prayer.

In addition to his duties at Mass, the deacon can also baptize, assist at and bless marriages, and preside over funerals.

A transitional deacon is a celibate man who is anticipating ordination to the priesthood. A permanent deacon, which Deacon Dan is, is often, though not always, a married man who remains a deacon for life.

SUPPORT COMMUNICATIONS IN THE DIOCESE

On June 8 and 9, parishes throughout the diocese will participate in the Catholic Communication Campaign. Half the funds raised are sent to the national office to fund various projects including the email delivery of the daily scripture readings, reflections on the daily readings, and masstimes.org, as well as communications projects in developing areas of the world. The other half of the funds raised stays here in the diocese to support the works of the Office of Communication – the Western New York Catholic, social media, the diocesan website and Catholic Directory, as well as public relations efforts for the diocese.
