CHRIST THE KING SEMINARY

Thank you for supporting the students of Christ the King Seminary.

Last weekend was the annual collection for Christ the King Seminary. Thank you to everyone who donated for your generous support. If you missed the collection, it's not too late to answer the call and support our seminary's important work of educating our future priests, deacons, and lay leaders to serve in our diocese. Donations are still being accepted at www.cks.edu or by calling 655-7082. Gifts may also be placed in the collection (Attn: Seminary Appeal) or mailed to Christ the King Seminary, Attn: Parish Appeal, PO Box 607, East Aurora, NY 14052-0607.

THE WEEK AT A GLANCE

Sunday, September 29 – 10:00am – Faith Formation – Mass followed by Meet and Greet (L)

(L) – Lakewood ~ (P) – Panama ~ (PC) – Parish Center

SACRED HEART ALTAR AND ROSARY SOCIETY

The annual membership drive of the Sacred Heart Altar and Rosary Society continues through the end of the month. Membership in the Altar and Rosary Society is open to all women of the parish. Some of the activities of the society include two bake sales/basket raffles each year, the spring rummage sale, cleaning the altar of our church in Lakewood, and a picnic in June. Proceeds from fundraisers are used to enhance the altar (for example, the purchase of altar cloths and vestments) and, this year, to help fund the scholarships awarded to graduating seniors. Every member does not have to participate in every activity but can be part of those events that fit into their schedules.

Those wishing to join are invited to pick up a dues envelope from the vestibule of the church in Lakewood after Mass any weekend this month. Dues are only $5!

HANDBELL CONCERT

The Good News Handbell Ensemble of First Lutheran Church will be presenting a program of sacred and popular favorites. The program will be on Sunday, September 22, at 4:00pm at the First Lutheran Church at 120 Chandler Street in Jamestown. Admission is free and a reception will follow.

VESTMENTS

Before a priest celebrates Mass, he puts on his vestments. What are these robes and sashes, and what do they mean?

The first thing the priest puts on is the alb. This is a long white garment that goes all the way to the feet. The word alb comes from the Latin alba, which means white. It is reminiscent of a baptismal garment, reminding the priest that, at the core of it all, he is a Christian.

A cincture is a braided cord used as a belt around the alb. It symbolizes chastity.

The priest then puts on his stole, a long cloth scarf that marks the office of the priest or deacon. A priest wears his stole around the neck so that both ends hang down the front. The stole symbolizes the priest's sacramental power and authority as he represents Christ. It is the Savior's "yoke" that Jesus mentions in Matthew 11:29-30.

The outermost vestment of the priest is called a chasuble. This can be a different color according to the liturgical season or feast. The chasuble is similar to a tent-like poncho worn by shepherds in ancient times. Thus, it symbolizes the priest "putting on Christ," our leader and Good Shepherd.

Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon them. May they rest in peace. Amen. May their souls and the souls of all the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace. Amen.

May the prayers of Mary, the Mother of God, who stood by the cross as Her Son was dying, help those who mourn for our brothers and sisters and accompany all of us in our time of need. Amen.
