All Souls

Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon them, Amen.

ACT OF SPIRITUAL COMMUNION

My Jesus, I believe that you are present in the Most Blessed Sacrament. I love you above all things, and I desire to receive you into my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive you sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace you as if you were already there and unite myself wholly to you. Never permit me to be separated from you. Amen (, .S. Catholic Catechism)

A LETTER FROM THE PASTOR

We will be hearing regularly from angels in the coming weeks.

We may not hear their voices directly with our ears; but through record of the Gospels. The Annunciation of the Incarnation of Jesus, Son of God, within her womb. The mystery of our Savior's Coming into flesh is so inspiring that it requires an active response on our part to grasp the meaning. The eternal Son from the realms of heaven and Mary in her humble home meet an eternal promise of salvation for sinners. If we truly understood the impact of this event, it would knock us on our backs. Give that some thought as you lie on your back on the snow covered ground. Contemplate the heavens as you move your arms and legs to make a snow angel. Feel your smallness as you look into eternity. Find a clear spot and this time lay face down in the snow. That's right, a face down snow angel! Beg the Lord of heaven and earth to make us truly aware of His light and warmth in our lives, especially now during these difficult times.

On behalf of our Parish Staff, I wish everyone of us that the Baby Jesus will find warmth in our loving hearts. May He find The doors of our hearts always opened-not only now during this great, full of joy and forgiveness Season-but throughout our entire lives.

HAVE A SAFE AND BLESSED CHRISTMAS!

GOD BLESS YOU!

Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon them. May they rest in peace. Amen. May their souls and the souls of all the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace. Amen.

May the prayers of Mary, the Mother of God, who stood by the cross as Her Son was dying, help those who mourn for our brothers and sisters and accompany all of us in our time of need. Amen.
