The Word of Life

“O Blessed Mother, you received the good news of the incarnation of Christ, your Son, with faith and trust. Grant your protection to all pregnant mothers facing difficulties. Guide us as we strive to make our parish communities places of welcome and assistance for mothers in need. Help us become instruments of God’s love and compassion.”

What does a call from God sound like?

There are many different ways God calls people . You don’t have to wait for a lightning bolt or a supernatural vision. Most often the call from God is found deep within your own heart(planted there by God left to be discovered by you!). It might manifest itself in different ways such as a desire to want to help others or a desire to know God more deeply. If you like being with people especially during some of the bigger moments in their lives...their weddings, the birth of their children, the death of a loved one...the priesthood could be for you. No two callings are the same. The important thing is, if you think you’ve been called, check it out. What have you got to lose. Speak with your priest or contact dbaker@buffalodiocese.org

THANK YOU! THANK YOU! THANK YOU!

Thank you to each and everyone of you that took a name off of our Angel Tree. Thank you for purchasing, wrapping, and delivering gifts to the parish. Your generosity and love is greatly appreciated and you made the Christmas Season special for our Food Ministry Families.

A special Thank You to Pat Dupere, Gloria Padd, Mary Hackford and Susan Ibaboa for all of your hardwork during Thanksgiving and Christmas to make sure that our families had what they needed!

Thank you to Julie Hayes, Lisa Burns, Carol Bankowski, Barbara Wendel and all the parishioners that came and helped decorate or donated for flowers to make our church so beautiful. God bless you all. Last but not least a big Thank You to Fr. Todd and Fr. Paul for providing Masses for our area! We appreciate all you do!

We will have NO Faith Formation classes this weekend.

Happy New Year and happy Solemnity of Mary Mother of God!

I am big fan of Apple CarPlay. This is not an official parish endorsement or a commercial for Apple products, but I enjoy this feature for a few reasons.

I can make my calls and texts hands free when I’m in the car and I can listen to my podcasts! I love podcasts! A few I listen to regularly are Pints with Aquinas, Godsplaining, EWTN News Nightly, Every Knee Shall Bow, They That Hope, Poco a Poco, Word on Fire, and Jimmy Akins Mysterious World. (Just to mention a few).

Well if your’re like me and like podcasts I have an idea for you!

Last year, you may remember that I suggested subscribing to Fr. Mike Schmitz’s Bible in a Year podcast. Many of you told me how much you were enjoying it! Well...believe it or not, Fr. Mike Schmitz has brand new podcast coming up called Catechism in a Year.

This brand new podcast features the Catechism of the Catholic Church in bite size portions every single day for a full year; learning about the fundamentals of our faith and why they matter to us, and learning about how rooted the Catechism is within Scripture and also 2000 years of Sacred Traditions.

Our world is so often saturated with a Godless culture. Why not steep our minds with one or two holy books of our faith, the Scripture and the Catechism? Either one will enrich your minds, hearts, and souls. So as you are planning to make New Year’s resolutions to be healthy, wealthy and wise, consider adding either the Bible in a Year or Catechism in a year with Fr. Mike Schmitz from Ascension. You can find it on Spotify, Apple Podcasts, Amazon Music, Stitcher, Google Podcasts or You Tube! If you go to the Ascension website you can download a reading guide for both the Bible and Catechism for a Year programs.

The Catechism is split into four parts: 1 The Profession of Faith (Apostles Creed) 2. The Sacraments(Sacred Liturgy) 3. Life in Christ (Morality through the Ten Commandments) 4. Christian Prayer (including the Lord’s Prayer)

These four parts form the foundation of what we believe as Catholics. In addition, the production of the Catechism under the direction of Pope St. John Paul II and now Pope Emeritus Benedict XVI together with a large team of theologians and bishops in nothing short of miraculous. You will be amazed at the rich theology, scripture and tradition that was put into each paragraph of the Catechism. I hope to make the Catechism in a Year a daily commitment together with Any of you who may be joining in!

Again from our parish family to yours we wish you a very happy New Year and many blessings upon you from Jesus, Mary, and Joseph!

GOD BLESS YOU IN 2023!

Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon them. May they rest in peace. Amen. May their souls and the souls of all the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace. Amen. May the prayers of Mary, the Mother of God, who stood by the cross as Her Son was dying, help those who mourn for our brothers and sisters and accompany all of us in our time of need. Amen.
