FROM THE PASTOR

John 20:19-23 – Pentecost
“Sacrament of Reconciliation”

The Church has dogmatically defined that the normal means for forgiveness of sins committed after Baptism, in particular mortal sins, is through the Sacrament of Reconciliation (Confession). However, the power to forgive sins does not come only from Christ, for Jesus received it from His Father. Jesus told the apostles; “As the Father has sent me, so I send you” (Jn 20:21) The apostles were to forgive sins just as Jesus did. How do we know this? Read the very next verse: “Whose sins you forgive they are forgiven them, whose sins you retain they are retained” How would the apostles know which sins to forgive or retain unless the sinner first confessed his sins? By these words Jesus expressly passed on His power to forgive sins to His apostles and their successors, the future caretakers of the Church. Some may find it uncomfortable or difficult to go to Confession, but our task is to obey God, not question His ways. Going to Confession reconciles us with God and the Church, restores us to God's grace, and gives us peace and serenity of conscience.

Trustees

Donald Pangborn, our trustee for over 25 years has decided to step down to enjoy and simplify life. We are so appreciative of all he has done and brought to the table as our trustee. Please join us to welcome Craig and his family on June 12th directly after Mass and enjoy some refreshments.
