FROM THE PASTOR

1 Corinthians 10:1-6,10-12 – 3rd Sunday of Lent
“Once Saved – Always Saved”

In today's second reading St. Paul warns the Corinthians that no one's eternal salvation is secure (v12). Even today some believe that by accepting Jesus as their personal Lord and Savior they are guaranteed eternal salvation and nothing they do after that can cause them to lose their salvation. This belief, sometimes called “Eternal Security” or “Once Saved – Always Saved” was never believed by the Church and is not supported by Scripture. In fact, St. Paul teaches the opposite “Work out your salvation with fear and trembling” (Phil 2:12). And again, “I drive my body and train it, for fear that, after having preached to others, I myself should be disqualified” (1 Cor 9:27) This does not sound like a man who believes he cannot lose his salvation! The Catholic Church teaches we must cooperate with God's grace and if we persevere in faithfulness to God we shall be saved.

May the prayers of Mary, the Mother of God, who stood by the cross as Her Son was dying, help those who mourn for our brothers and sisters and accompany all of us in our time of need. Amen.
